Rod Rosenstein W'86 Deputy Attorney General of the United States

In conversation with Amanda Shanor, Assistant Professor of Legal Studies & Business Ethics, the Wharton School

Opening remarks from Ted Ruger, Dean and Bernard G. Segal Professor of Law, Penn Law

Rod J. Rosenstein is the 37th Deputy Attorney General of the United States. As Deputy Attorney General, he advises and assists the Attorney General in formulating and implementing Department of Justice policies and programs and in providing overall supervision to all organizational units of the Department of Justice. Mr. Rosenstein has spent over 27 years in government service.

After graduating from the Wharton School of Business and Harvard Law School, Mr. Rosenstein started his legal career as a law clerk to Judge Douglas H. Ginsburg of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit. Mr. Rosenstein began his career with the Department as an attorney with the Attorney General's Honors Program and previously served as U.S. Attorney for the District of Maryland from 2005 to 2017.
